To the members of the class of 1997:

CONGRATULATIONS! You have made it through your college years, and now it is time to enter the "real world." As you leave the University of New Haven, make sure that you leave with all your memories in your heart. Bethel Hall, waking up at 3 a.m. for those wonderful fire alarms, the night life at UNH, those are just some of the fun memories. Most of all don't forget the friends that you have made in the past four/five years. Those friends are ones that will be there for you when you need them. I wish you well in all that you do.

"Don't be dismayed at good-byes. A farewell is necessary before you can say hello again. And meeting again after moments or lifetimes is certain for those who are friends." - Richard Bach

U.N.H. - Our Campus

The University of New Haven was founded in 1920 as the New Haven YMCA Junior College, a division of Northeastern University. The college became New Haven College in 1926 by an act of the Connecticut General Assembly. Starting strictly as an evening college focusing in business and engineering, UNH has grown and prospered throughout the years.

In 1960, the university moved from New Haven to its current West Haven campus and ten years later, in 1970, it changed its name to the University of New Haven. UNH now includes five undergraduate schools - Arts & Sciences, Business, Engineering, Hotel, Restaurant & Tourism Administration, and Public Safety & Professional Studies and the Graduate School. The campus encompasses 23 major buildings on more than 73 acres. The buildings are relatively new, except for Maxcy Hall and the Gate House, which date back to the early 1900's. For many years these buildings served as the county's orphanage.

Today the university is a major co-educational, independent institution with undergraduate and graduate degree programs (including a doctorate in management systems) in more than 85 areas of study. Enrollment, including full and part-time undergraduate students, as well as graduate students, totals close to 6,000.

In 1995, the University celebrated its 75th anniversary. In 1996, the University began construction on two new residence halls-Bixler and Botwinik Hall. Also, emergency telephones were installed all across campus.

During our years at UNH, we experienced life, love and learning. As our knowledge grows, and our life experiences are enriched, we will fondly look back and thank the faculty and staff at UNH for helping us "Build Towards a New Tomorrow."

Memories

Friends Forever

Friends are the best. We have had many great times at UNH, and friends were always there during the good times, and the bad times. And, it is because of these friends that the years go by so fast. Time flies by, and one looks back and wonders where it went. That is why we have the yearbook. The yearbook takes the memories and freezes time so everyone can look back at them and smile.

Never Say Goodbye!

live for the moment

REMEMBER . . . .

Remember the roommates, the fears, the tears, the nerves, setting up the room, taking it apart, and the rearranging it all over again.

Remember the first guy or girl who caught your eye, the one who you will always remember as your first college crush.

Remember attempting to keep in touch with high school friends, and succeeding until you realized what a phone bill REALLY meant.

Remember holding back the tears on those days when you just wanted to be home again, to feel safe again.

Remember those days you felt like you couldn't relate to ANYONE, you felt you had no place, and just calling home would make it worse.

Remember how you never realized the importance of family, until you didn't see them every day.

Remember telling friends the deepest secrets of your life, and knowing they'd remain secrets.

Remember pulling all nighters, and never thinking they were as bad as they sounded until you actually lived through one.

Remember the times, never forget them, even the little ones can hold the greatest meaning.

Remember to never lose touch with those friends you've made here at UNH, because you have all changed and grown together, and that is something very sacred to be shared.

Remember to never let a day go by without a laugh.

Remember to love the ones you love, life isn't forever.

Remember the laughs, let them echo in the back of your mind.

Remember to love your friends, whether they come, go, love you, or hurt you, NEVER let anyone go,

And always remember, when you leave UNH, you are leaving with much more than you walked in here with.

THE CHARGER BULLETIN

The Charger Bulletin is a student run newspaper at the University of New Haven. It provides students and faculty with information about what is happening here on campus such as movies, lectures, and even club meetings. Students can also read their horoscope. Overall the newspaper is a great resource for students and faculty. Matthew Bajko, and his staff did an excellent job in bringing a fresh new look to the newspaper. The entire staff should be commended for a great job, a job most people take for granted.

CHARIOT YEARBOOK

The Chariot Yearbook is the organization that throughout the year works to taking the entire year, capturing it and putting in into a book. It represents the lives here at UNH. As editor, I was successful at putting together a wonderful book for all to enjoy with the help of a few staff members. We covered events from Spring Fling, to Homecoming, to Casino Night. It took a lot of time and effort but it was definitely worth it. The Chariot Yearbook staff hopes that everyone will enjoy this book and that it will serve as a fountain of memories in years to come.

New Dorms At U.N.H.
Bixler Hall And Botwinik Hall

On May 9, 1996, the University of New Haven began construction on its two new dormitories, Bixler and Botwinik Hall. On this day, the university held a ceremony in honor of Roland Bixler and Norman Botwinik, and to start the construction. The buildings will provide residential living for freshmen and upperclassmen as well as student services. Bixler Hall was named after Roland Bixler who served as a distinguished past chairman of the UNH Board from 1950-1972. Botwinik Hall was named after Norman Botwinik who was also a distinguished past chairman of the UNH Board from 1972-1992. The dorms are expected to open in 1997.

Before . . . . . .

And After.

The University of New Haven, in 1996, set up emergency phones across campus for added safety. The emergency phones were placed in strategic locations on campus in parking lots, at the dorms and at the gymnasium, to name a few. When the phone is activated, campus police responds to the call.

University of New Haven

New Residence Halls
West Haven, CT

The University of New Haven (UNH) was founded in 1920 and moved to its present campus in West Haven in the 1960's. UNH, offering programs including public safety, allied health, engineering and hotel, restaurant and tourism, has been mainly a commuter day and night school. The University administrators now desire to increase the on-campus resident population by adding new residence halls.

The campus master plan calls for the residential community to be consolidated in one quadrant near existing graduate and upperclassmen residence halls. The new dormitories are designed to integrate campus master plan objectives including implementation of a proposed east/west pedestrian spine and the creation of a courtyard space. The buildings represent urban structures in a compact village with ground level retail spaces facing the courtyard, reinforcing the pedestrian spine. The two parallel new buildings mirror each other yet are of different height and length to add interest and variety. The new four-story structure will house 196 freshmen in double occupancy rooms and the five-story building will serve as home to 174 upperclassmen in two-person suites. The new residence halls will create a hierarchy of dormitory accommodations with increasing personal and common amenities.

FLETCHER THOMPSON
ARCHITECTURE / ENGINEERING / INTERIOR DESIGN

With input from University fiscal, facilities, maintenance, security and student housing officials appropriate amenities are added to improve campus life and to build a close knit student community. The design includes an optimal number of students per floor (44 and 50) to facilitate interaction and to help develop a close knit student community. For security reasons, the design includes no student rooms on the ground floor. Each building has only one entrance and monitored card key access is provided at each floor lobby and student room. Each student room is considered a learning center with cable TV, telephone and computer network access via fiber optic cable to the University's resources and the world. Also provided, are common lounge areas, study rooms, meeting rooms, computer labs, laundry rooms and resident directors or assistants apartments on each floor. A kitchen and cafeteria dining room for the entire residential community are included at the ground floor of the new freshmen dormitory.

The architectural style of the new residence halls is a derivative of Collegiate Georgian to relate to existing campus structures such as Maxy Hall and the new Admissions Building. The design incorporates many elements commonly associated with Georgian architecture including: symmetrically balanced buildings with central, pedimented entrance porticos; the use of paired divided-lite windows with articulated headers, keystones and projecting sills; the use of a rusticated base treatment and quoins to turn corners; and, the stair towers at each end are reminiscent of the Georgian chimney form.

First Annual Spirit Day And Pep Rally!!

October 25, 1996

On October 25, 1996, UNH held its first annual Spirit Day and Pep Rally. The purpose of this day was to raise the school spirit for the upcoming Homecoming Football Game. Students were encouraged to wear school colors and/or school paraphernalia to show their support. Some of the events included a touch football game, a volleyball game, and ping pong. There was also a pep rally which included cheers from the cheerleaders, a barbeque, and encouragement speeches from various coaches, and the athletic director, Debbie Chin. The day and events were a success!!!!

Office Of Residential Life

The character of residential living is often a good indication of the spirit and life on campus. For this reason, the university strives to make its residential facilities places where students can meet new people, establish friendships, and learn in an environment which encourages academics, creativity, and personal development.

The residential life program works to maintain an environment which encourages the achievement of academic goals, supports activities which broaden students' horizons and understanding of others, and promotes self-reliance and leadership.

The university has four residence halls on campus: Sheffield Hall, Winchester Hall, Dunham Hall, and Bethel Hall. The University is in the process of building two new residence halls-Bixler Hall and Botwinik Hall.

Editor's Page

Once again, after being editor for the second year, I have reached the last page!!! Sitting here at 1 o'clock in the morning after working close to ten hours to make the last deadline early is unbelievable, but yet exciting. I thought the second time around would be much easier since it was the same job as last year but that wasn't entirely true. It was just as difficult, stressful and time consuming.

The theme of this yearbook is "Building Towards a New Tomorrow" in honor of all the new renovations on campus. The campus itself is changing as time goes by, along with each and every graduating senior. The campus itself, physically is being built to initiate a new tomorrow, and it has built and given everyone a strong foundation for the future.

For the second time, I must thank Bob Sasena for all of his help and guidance in putting this masterpiece together. I will miss you!!! Thanks to our advisor, Cyndi Avery, for all of the information that was needed for the book, Laura Hurley, for the help and reassurance that was greatly needed, Lens Inc. for developing our film and taking our pictures, and the staff, who were always willing to help whenever I needed it. Finally, I would also like to thank my parents for helping me with this yearbook and my schooling and helping me reach my dreams.

Wishing congratulations to the Class of 1997 in their achievements also includes myself, since I will soon be graduating (in January 1998). I wish you all the best. Good luck in all that you do. I hope that you will look back at all of this hard work with fond memories and never forget UNH. This is where you have grown up, found yourself and prospered and that should and will never be forgotten.
